

Moral Fitness and Criminal Background Information

Discretionary Grounds for Denying, Suspending or Revoking Private Security Certification or Licensure:

The Department may deny or revoke the certification or licensure of any applicant or private security provider after written notice and hearing, if requested, upon finding that an applicant or private security provider:

Fails to meet the minimum standards for certification or licensure as a private security provider as defined in OAR 259-060-0020;

Has falsified any information submitted on the application for certification or licensure or any documents submitted to the Department pertaining to private security certification or licensure;

Has violated any of the temporary assignment provisions of OAR 259-060-0120(1);

Has failed to submit properly completed forms or documentation in a time frame as designated by the Department;

Has failed to pay a civil penalty or fee imposed by the Department when due;

Has failed to comply with any provisions found in the Act or these rules; or

Lacks moral fitness.

For the purposes of this standard, the Department, through the Policy Committee and Board, has defined lack of moral fitness as:

Dishonesty. Lack of honesty includes, but is not limited to, untruthfulness, dishonesty by admission or omission, deception, misrepresentation or falsification;

Lack of Good Character. Lack of good character includes, but is not limited to, failure to be faithful and loyal to the employer's charge and failure to use discretion and compassion;

Mistreatment of Others. Mistreatment of others includes, but is not limited to, violating another person's rights and failure to respect others;

Lack of Public Trust. Failure to maintain public trust and confidence includes, but is not limited to, acting in an unlawful manner or not adhering to recognized industry standards; or Lack of Respect for the Laws of this State or Nation. Lack of respect for the laws of this state and nation includes a pattern of behavior which leads to three or more arrests or convictions within a ten-year period prior to application or during certification or licensure.

CRIMINAL HISTORY – Certain convictions DISQUALIFY you from being certified and you will not be allowed to work as a private security provider, under Oregon law. The attached criminal disqualifier list is provided for you to determine whether or not you want to apply. If you apply for certification or licensure and your criminal background check shows that you have been convicted of any of the below listed crimes or equivalent crimes in other jurisdiction your application will be disqualified. Please call DPSST at 503 378-8531 if you have any questions. NOTE: If you have history that you believe should have been “expunged” or removed from your record, but you do not know (proof in hand) that it was expunged or removed; you should verify your belief prior to applying. A crime is not removed from your record until you go through the formal process to have it removed. Believing a conviction was removed, or forgetting a conviction existed, is not a valid defense and your application for certification or licensure may be denied.
